

Caspari Center
for Biblical and Jewish Studies

OPEN LECTURE

TUESDAY / MARCH 6TH / AT 7PM

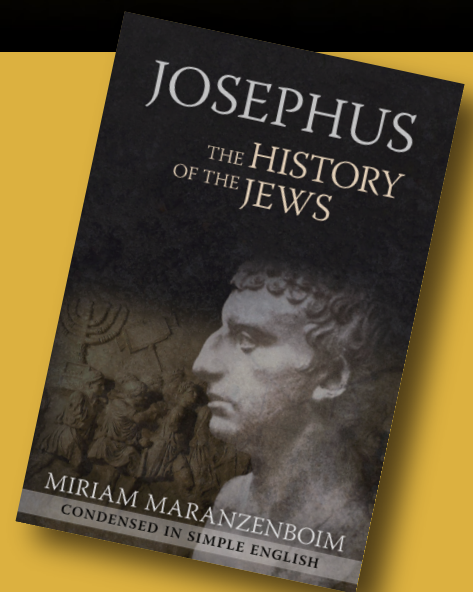

JOSEPHUS THE HISTORY OF THE JEWS

MIRIAM MARANZENBOIM

Miriam Maranzenboim is the author of a section-by-section condensation of the 1700's version of Antiquities, Josephus's second major work—in simple English. Next to the Bible, this is the second most reliable historic source, and includes amazing information about both temples in Jerusalem, as well as rarely discussed miraculous facts of history.

Miriam will discuss the importance of the book, some events that are described therein, Jewish attitudes towards the Antiquities, and more.

There will be an opportunity to purchase discounted copies of her book, Josephus—The History of the Jews in Simple English.

Miriam Maranzenboim has lived in Israel since 1977. She has a B.A. in Communications from California State University at Los Angeles. She has studied extensively on her favorite subjects: the Bible, Israel/Jerusalem, and ancient history.

The lecture is open to the public and is free of charge. It takes place at 55 HaNevi'im Street, Jerusalem.

The Caspari Center Library is open to the public prior to the lecture.

This lecture as well as a selection of past lectures will be available for download on our website www.caspari.com under Resources /Audio.

For more information please contact the Caspari Center, Tel. 02-623-3926, E-mail : caspari@caspari.com