

DISCOVERING JESUS IN HIS JEWISH CONTEXT

Caspari Center's 10-day Study Tour
April 19 – 30, 2021 Israel

How did the Jewish Jesus of the first century become a Light for all nations?
Learn all about the cultural, socioeconomic and political context of Jesus' time, as well as the challenges of presenting the gospel in present-day Israel.

Join us for lectures by local scholars, meetings with Christian/Messianic leaders, and daily field trips in and around Jerusalem.

Sign up for a life-changing experience!

Course themes

- The Jerusalem that Jesus knew
- Jesus' Galilee
- Qumran: A different Judaism
- Jesus and the New Testament authors as contextual theologians
- Jewish believers in Jesus in the first and second centuries
- Covenant Theology
- Messianic Judaism as a contextual expression for faith in Jesus
- The ongoing challenge of reconciliation

Cost: 8,800 NIS for single occupancy or 7,250 NIS for double occupancy, including accommodation, lectures, transportation and entry to sites. Cost might be subject to slight change. Not included: airfare, insurance or meals.

Please note: Competency in English is required to attend the course.

For further information, write caspari@caspari.com or visit www.caspari.com.

Caspari Center