Discovering Jesus in His Jewish Context

Caspari Center's 10-day Study Tour

May 9 – 20, 2022 Israel

When God chose to become one of us, he did so in the specific cultural, social, economic, and political context of first-century Israel. Jesus was Jewish and preached almost exclusively to other Jews. Yet his message spread throughout the ancient world, and continues to do so today. Understanding Jesus' first-century Jewish context is essential for understanding and applying theology, here and now.

Themes covered include...

- The Jerusalem that Jesus knew
- Jesus' Galilee
- Qumran: A different Judaism
- Jesus and the New Testament authors as contextual theologians
- Jewish believers in Jesus in the first and second centuries
- Covenant Theology
- Messianic Judaism as a window to the Jewishness of our faith
- The ongoing challenge of reconciliation

We will explore all these themes through lectures, meetings with local scholars and Christian/Messianic leaders, and daily field trips in and around Jerusalem.

This course is open to pastors, theologians, and bible students from all over the world.

A typical day...

Two morning lectures

Lunch break

Afternoon excursion with onsite teaching

Dinner

Evening program: e.g. field trip, group discussion or free time

Testimonials

"Digging deeper into the connection between the Old and New Testaments, getting a clearer understanding of the context Jesus lived and ministered in, was truly inspiring. I learned more practical Old Testament theology in these ten days than I did in my whole theological education. Even though I'd visited Israel and the Palestinian areas many times in the past, I now have better insight into the historic and the current political situation. The diversity of lecturers stimulated our critical thinking, generated some good discussions and gave us spiritual inspiration. I highly recommend this course!"

"Inspiring teachers, excursions and lectures! I'm taking so much home with me: to share with my kids, for the benefit of my own spiritual life and for my congregation.

– Course participant, 2019

"The course was very relevant for my ministry as a pastor, especially for my preaching. It increased a desire to dig more profoundly into the Bible to find treasures and deeper meaning."
