

Position Description Caspari Center CEO

Organizational overview:

The Caspari Center for Biblical and Jewish Studies is an evangelical resource and education center for training, discipleship, and academic research and study, located in Jerusalem. At the Caspari Center, Messianic Jews and Gentile Christians work together to strengthen and support the movement of Jewish believers in Jesus. The Center also organizes courses for Christians from abroad, to learn about the Jewish roots of the faith.

Position summary:

The role of the CEO is to engage, teach, lead and develop the organization's work in Israel. The CEO also partners with a broader ministry team in Israel, consisting of other ministries under the Norwegian Church Ministry to Israel.

Qualifications:

- Member of a local Israeli congregation
- Knowledgeable about the global Messianic movement
- Master's Degree (at minimum) in a relevant field
- Fluency in Hebrew and English
- Leadership experience
- Strong administrative skills
- Humble, team-building attitude
- Skilled networker
- Israeli citizen/permanent resident

Specific duties:

- Overseeing ministry operations and activities
- Formulating strategic plans in partnership with the staff
- Fundraising and promotion
- Managing finances
- Developing partnerships with other ministries in Israel and abroad
- Participating in the ministry's activities
- Dealing with legal and governmental matters

Contact:

Please send your CV, together with three recommendations (including one from your pastor), to Elisabeth Levy at elevy@caspari.com

+972-(2)-623-3926 <https://www.caspari.com/>

Deadline for application: 20.1.2022